

2018 Triangle Youth Clinic

Durham Athletic Park, Durham, NC

Saturday, May 26, 2018

10:30am to 3:00pm

Calling all boys and girls youth baseball players:

The Atlantic Coast Conference is the top collegiate baseball league in America and this year the ACC Baseball Championship return to Durham Bulls Athletic Park over Memorial Day Weekend. For the first time ever, an attractive skills clinic for youth players, the Triangle Youth Clinic, will be held on Saturday, May 26, and every participant in the clinic will be able to attend an ACC Semi-final game at Durham Bulls Athletic Park at no extra charge. Youth clinic athletes will help open the ACC game by participating in a Parade of Athletes across the diamond that will be broadcast on the giant Blue Monster video wall.

The camp is being hosted by the Triangle Sports Commission in conjunction with the Durham Bulls, USA Baseball, and Sports & Properties, Inc.

The clinic will feature an excellent team of instructors whose goal is to enhance each athlete's knowledge of baseball and improve their fundamental baseball skills. The clinic Head Coach is Eric Campbell, Director of National Teams for USA Baseball.

Expert instruction will be provided in the areas of:

- Hitting
- Fielding
- Pitching
- Base Running
- Equipment
- Training
- Competing

Players will be grouped by age and/or skill level. Each group will rotate through various stations designed to aid improvement in all key areas of the game.

Instructors will be comprised of current and former collegiate coaches, and current and former high school coaches and players.

Equipment:

- Required Items: glove
- Suggested Items: bat, shoes – cleats or sneakers, helmet, and catching gear (catchers only)

Each player will receive:

- Hours of high-quality professional instruction
- Handouts on drills designed to aid training and continued improvement after the camp concludes
- Opportunity to meet and learn from top coaches and athletes
- Official commemorative Triangle Youth Clinic t-shirt
- Goody bag containing a variety of special gift items
